The Books Have Arrived!

You have read about our tent schools in Afghanistan's refugee camps on our website, here is proof of real progress for the children: BOOKS!

With the tireless efforts by Afghan Education for a Better Tomorrow members Nazi Etemadi and Barry Malyar, AEBT has supplied students in the tent schools with the necessary books and stationary needed for the school year to begin. In addition, thanks to the cooperative efforts we have established with the Lamia Afghan Foundation (<http://www.lamia-afghanfoundation.org/>), a palette of additional schools supplies will be delivered from the Lamia Afghan Foundation to AEBT in Kabul where the supplies will be distributed to our students in our tent schools. AEBT will fill student's bag packs with the school supplies.

Below are pictures from book distribution in the Chaman-e-Babrak camp.
